

Are you looking for staff?

Benefits of SYC's employer support

SYC is a not-for-profit with a relentless belief in people and their potential. We have over two decades of experience matching work-ready candidates with suitable positions, providing a range of recruitment and training services tailored to the needs of employers and the labour market, with proven results.

Our free service gives you access to professional Employment Coaches.

Our Employment Coaches:

- Understand the local market and have access to a pool of potential employees
- Are available to meet with you to establish your recruitment needs and source, screen and present candidates who meet those needs
- Can work with you on an ongoing basis to develop a comprehensive and accurate understanding of your business

Support doesn't stop once the vacancy is filled; SYC offers ongoing support for employers and new staff members to ensure success.

Want to know more?

Contact our Business Development Team today! employersupport@sync.net.au

Strengthen your workforce

SYC can work with you to strengthen the diversity of your workforce by connecting you with great candidates and support services.

We deeply understand our client's abilities and career goals, ensuring employers receive motivated, job-ready applicants. We can support you in finding your team's perfect fit with the right mix of skills and training.

Wage subsidies

As a trusted provider of Workforce Australia Services, ParentsNext and Disability Employment Services; incentives may be available to support your business with a new employee.

Up to $10,000 could be available to offset the cost of training and supporting your new employee in becoming a valued member of your workforce. SYC's knowledgeable Employment Coaches will assist, ensuring your new employee is the right fit while also guiding you through the Wage Subsidy options.

*Conditions apply and funding levels vary.

